I title was concluded to pass it to the pitcher without its first touching the ground and so stopped this journey Gordon gave his ball to the who politely passed it to the first base and the Pithole men scored "nary run" Simmons led off on the filnth and last inning.

nd did well too, making his first easily. Goo Chase put a little extra nerve into use and made two buses, getting Simmons home Crossley failed on his first, but Chose (Geo) got in on his hit. Tracy went along as usual to his first Cox followed sult going out on the first Wirt gave a good hit fetting in Tracy and was followed by Harwood who as usual broke a bat by a for bul, but soon took up his line of march, while W W walked home Cohurn made his first and be water those bloom Hurd did a five specimen of batting and got his base, Simmons followed and lost on the first thin closing the game in and Coburn expired on the roost. The tallies of the scorers agreeing, the Umpire declared the onion Club the victors by a score of 62 to 9

Throughout the game was well played It not the experience that the Union men possessed Many of their men s owed a close study of the game and lost no casue, for making a point Mr Montgomery, the catcher was disabled a Van Brunt, the pitcher kept the players hugging their bases. Mr. Rosch, the gentleman who played on the Fast, dail all that could be asked of any one in that position. Mr. McCall, in the Centre Field attended to all calls upon his posi-tion. In Mr. Junaison, the scorer, we met

Advertising There are comparatively few business incu who understand the art of advertising men advertising for a short time offer they comers interinit advertising after they have establish mistake From the moment a house causes to advertise, however large its reputation and standing, it begins to decline. The changes are so rapid in this conferry the public mind is so con tantly occupied by new applicants for its atten tion, that to be out of the papers, where every body seeks information on every subject is to be forgotten. The press is daily becoming a necessity, and its usefulness as an advertising mediness without availing hunself of its advantages.
